Thomas L. James,
E. W. Bloomingdale,
Henry Clews,
Charles W. Dutton

On Saturday, March 3, a committee of well-known financiers, comprising Messrs. J. EDWARD SIMMONS, President Fourth National Bank and ex-President of the Stock Exchange; THOMAS L. JAMES, President Lincoln National Bank and ex-Postmaster-General of the United States; A. B. HERRICK, President Third National Bank, ex-Comptroller of the United States Currency, ex-Bank Examiner of the United States and ex-Superintendent of State Banks; E. W. BLOOMINGDALE, of the dry goods house of Bloomingdale Bros.; HENRY CLEWS, of the banking house of Henry Clews & Co.; and CHARLES W. DUTTON, Postmaster of the city of New York, after spending over two hours carefully investigating The World's circulation books, press-room reports, mail-room reports, paper companies' bills for amount of paper furnished, receipts of said bills, orders from news companies and other records, and playing searching questions to The World's employees connected with the circulation department, signed the above certificate.

SHE WAS HYSTERICAL.

Important Point Adduced at the Inquest in Miss Fuller's Death.

BURTON TELLS AN INSTANCE.

Evidence Shows That After Giving the Alarm Magee Was Never Alone.

COULD NOT PLACE THE PISTOL.

Beininger Says It Was in Plain Sight When He Entered the Office.

Once again the musty court-room of Coroner Fitzpatrick was crowded this morning by the witnesses subpoenaed for the inquest into the death of Miss Martha J. Fuller, who was killed by a pistol shot through her brain Saturday afternoon, March 17, in the law office of William M. Mullen, 114 Nassau street, second floor.

Among the first to arrive was Rev.
Joel Johnson, priest in charge of St. Ambrose's Protestant Episcopal church, Prince and Thompson streets.
He said he was an old friend and fellow-countryman of Joseph T. Magee, the young lawyer and managing clerk for Mullen, who was the only person present when the fatal shot was fired, and who is held as the possible murderer of the comely typewriter.

Following Dr. O'Sullivan into court was Frank E. Towle, a civil engineer, at 25 Chambers street. He carried a diagram of the scene of the tragedy.

Other witnesses were Eudine Davis, a typewriter in one of the offices at 114 Nassau street; Miss Klock, an intimate friend of Miss Fuller; Policeman James McCabe, who was the first officer to arrive after the tragedy; Undertaker A. J. Allen, of Nassau street; Frank Henderson, of Nassau street; Wagoner's office boy, who picked up the revolver; Detective-Sergeant McGraw, and Detective-Sergeant T. J. Ryan, who were detailed by Inspector McLaughlin to unravel the mystery; Frank Kernan, the editor, who was the first person to enter the room where the tragedy occurred; John P. Hiley, the lawyer, who followed him into the room; officers McGraw, Ryan, and Michael Gaffney, 124 Cedar street.
Commodore Maurice P. Hulan was among the spectators.

Assistant District Attorney Hartman, Charles W. Hooke, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler and the jury were all in their places before the prisoner arrived at the scene of the inquest.

The jury are Foreman Charles B. Post, President of the United States; Lawrence J. Callahan of Callahan & Kemp; James W. Hooke, of Hooke & Hooke; John J. Starn, George J. Robinson, Henry Zox, John H. Meyer, C. P. Gilmore, and John J. Starn, of Washington Market; M. A. Childs and M. Buckley, of Buckley, Dunham & Co., dry goods store.

Arrival of Magee.

At 11:20 Detective Webb, of the Oak street squad, arrived with Joseph T.

SAYS HE WAS KIDNAPPED.

A 16-Year-Old Youth Tells a Lurid Story of Adventure.

STAPLETON, N. Y., April 2.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon Eugene Carney, sixteen years old, entered the Stapleton Police Headquarters and said that he lived at 26 Clinton street, West Hoboken, and that he was employed by P. J. Carney, a publisher, on the corner of Third avenue and Thirtieth street,
New York.

He said that he went to work at 5 o'clock, and while in the back of the shop at 10:30 o'clock two men came in and asked him to give them the key to the building. They wanted to blow up the building. The boy refused to comply with their request and they went out.
Eugene was sent on an errand a short time afterwards, and when he returned he found a short distance from the men, and he saw one of them choking another. He said that he knew nothing further until he regained consciousness on the Stapleton floor.

He did not know how he got to Stapleton, and said that the men had little faith in his story and sent Officer Hiley with the boy to Charles Carney's place.
There he learned something about the boy's story.

There is no P. J. Carney, a publisher, at Third avenue and Thirtieth street.
In fact there is no P. J. Carney named in the Directory. The only publisher whose name resembles that of the boy is P. J. Collier, at 225 West Thirtieth street, and he knows nothing about Eugene.

REFUSED TO SERVE DRINKS.

Goldstein's Suit Against Hotel-Keeper Trainor Dismissed.

The action of Abraham J. Goldstein to recover $2,000 damages from John Trainor, who conducts a hotel at Thirty-third street and Broadway, was dismissed to-day by Justice Ingraham, of the Supreme Court.

The suit was based on the refusal of the defendant to serve Goldstein with a drink on the evening of July 8, 1892.

The plaintiff alleges that the refusal to serve him was because there was a negro in his party.

Trainor's counsel contended that a suitor cannot sue for damages when he pleases with drinks, and the fact that a negro was in the party does not affect the question. Justice Ingraham sustained this view.

ERASTUS WIMAN RESIGNS.

Retires from the Presidency of the States Island Railroad Company.

Erastus Wiman, the former millionaire, who is under bail charged with the forgery of two checks for $5,000 and $5,000 respectively, to-day resigned the Presidency of the States Island Rapid-Transit Railroad Company.

Mr. Wiman's resignation was accepted, and a meeting of the directors of the Company will be held on Saturday for the purpose of electing his successor.

STABBED WITH SCISSORS.

Mrs. Kate Murphy Seriously Injured
by Her Husband.

Mrs. Kate Murphy, twenty-five years old, of 147 Conover street, Brooklyn, was stabbed above the heart with a pair of scissors this afternoon by her husband, Jeremiah, forty-five years old.

They had a quarrel over some family matters. She was taken to the Long Island hospital, at Flatbush. Her husband was arrested by Policeman Burke, of the Hamilton avenue station.

The woman is in a precarious condition.

HOFFMAN HOUSE SALE.

W. E. D. Stokes's Motion to Set It Aside Refused.

Justice O'Brien, of the Supreme Court, to-day rendered a decision refusing to set aside the Hoffman House sale which occurred early in March under foreclosure proceedings.

The motion to set aside the sale was made by counsel for W. E. D. Stokes on the ground that a better price could have been obtained if the property had been sold in separate parcels instead of as a whole.

Ninety miles of Wire Cut.

At a meeting of the Board of Electrical Control in the Mayor's office to-day the electrical expert reported that ninety miles of wire had been removed during the months of February and March. This included the taking down of wires on Broadway between Tenth street and the Battery. On the motion of Mayor Hugan, the Board was instructed to push the suit against the State Comptroller for the recovery of the money paid for the wire, which has not been paid since November, on account of the removal of the wire. The Board also was urged to see that the State Comptroller disposes of the wire.

The Behring Sea Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Behring Sea bill was about to pass at 1:40 when several Senators asked some time to consider the bill and see it printed with the Senate amendments. Senator Morgan asked unanimous consent that the bill be considered after Senator Voorhees's speech, which was agreed to, so the matter went over till later in the day.

The House in a Tangle.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon the House was in a tangle at least two hours would be required to unravel the parliamentary tangle into which the House had got itself, and that the Democrats would fail to secure the required quorum to send a bill.

Changes in Stock Exchange Firms.

Schramm & Miller have dissolved, and a new partnership formed under the name of Schramm & Miller.

Maynard to Vote in Albany.

ALBANY, April 2.—The Court of Appeals has been ordered to sit at Albany, N. Y., on Monday, April 3, at 10 o'clock.

GEORGIA'S NEW SENATOR.

Gov. Northern Appoints Editor Patrick
Walsh, of Augusta.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—Gov. Nor-then this morning appointed Patrick Walsh, editor of the Augusta Chronicle, as United States Senator, to succeed Mr. Colquhoun, deceased, the place having been declined by Speaker Crisp.

Mr. Walsh is one of the best known men in the South. He is a staunch Democrat, has been Georgia's representative on the Democratic National Committee, and has attended the Democratic National Conventions for years as a delegate. He is largely interested in affairs of Georgia and was the organizer and President of the Augusta Exposition of the Products of the South.

Mr. Walsh vigorously opposed Cleveland's nomination the last time, and is emphatic in his views that every pledge of the Democratic platform should be redeemed. He is an earnest advocate of free coinage.

BENEDICT PUBLIC PRINTER.

Mr. Cleveland Recalls His Old Appointee from New York.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate:

Thomas H. Benedict, of New York, to be Public Printer.

James D. Yeomans, of Iowa, to be Interstate Commerce Commissioner.

George H. Perkins, to be Postmaster at Rochester, N. Y.

Thomas H. Benedict, again appointed Public Printer, held his office in Mr.
Cleveland's previous administration. He was then called from the Comptroller's office in this State. He is a man about fifty-two years of age, alert, active and earnest, and comes of a line of men long prominent in public affairs.

NEW CONSULS NAMED.

Also a New Collector of Customs at Burlington, N. J.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The President to-day appointed the following Consuls of the United States: Richard M.
Burke, of Illinois, at Chihuahua; John H. Blake, of North Dakota, at Harar quella; James H. Dinmore, of Texas, at Cienfuegos, Cuba; George R. Ernst, of Wisconsin, at Reichenberg, Bohemia; William C. Foster, of Arizona, at Trinidad; W. L. Walter R. Henry, of North Carolina, at Cartagena; John A. Smith, of New York, at Cartagena, Colombia.

To be Collector of Customs, John A.
Wilson, Burlington, N. J.

M'KANE'S LAST CHANCE.

Papers in His Appeal Sent to the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The clerk of the United States Circuit Court at New York has forwarded to the Supreme Court the papers in the case of the appeal of John Y. McKane, of New York, from the decision of Judge Lacombe declaring him a writ of habeas corpus. Mc-Kane is now confined in Sing Sing for a violation of the election laws. His counsel will be notified of the action of the clerk of the court and, on assurance of costs and appearance of counsel, the case will be argued in the United States Supreme Court.

It is said by an official of the court that there is hardly a likelihood that the case will be heard this term.
